

How to photograph your Dachshund

To get the best results take LOTS of photographs. Look at the following examples for tips. A good phone camera is fine.

Back lit. Make sure dog is looking into the sun. ✘

Beware of standing above the dog, take almost lying down. ✘

Good shot but notice nose slightly misplaced. ✘

Lovely photo of a side profile. ✓
Do you want the dog's collar in the painting?

Find a simple background, Photograph can be cropped for just the face. ✓

A ¾ pose looks great. Bring camera to eye level. ✓

Ears down shows a perplexed emotion, but this is true to my Lily ✓

Quite good, but still looking from above, which gives distortion, such as a longer nose. ✘
